Exploring online dating among Autistic adults

You are invited to take part in this research if:

- you are an Autistic adult (18+) (professionally diagnosed or self-identified) AND
- you have used an app or website to try and meet a romantic or intimate partner (including casual hook-ups and long-term relationships).

What will you do?

Complete a 15-minute anonymous online survey.

Benefits

- By sharing your experiences, you'll help us develop tools and resources that support Autistic people in safely using dating apps and websites to connect with potential dating partners.
- When you complete the survey, Aspect will donate AU$2 to your choice of three international charities.
